

Belgrano 1287 2°B

A photograph of a rooftop terrace. A white parapet wall runs across the middle ground. In front of the wall, there is a large area covered in dark brown mulch, with a diagonal strip of light-colored gravel or small stones. Two small black square objects are mounted on the wall. In the background, there are tall apartment buildings and green trees under a clear sky. A white metal railing is visible in the bottom left corner.
